Investment Profile

Origin BioMed ramps up its sales efforts and expands its global reach with a $2-million investment through Nova Scotia Business Inc. (NSBI) Venture Capital.

Origin BioMed Inc. is an innovative over-the-counter consumer health products company focused on pain management. Its products are in all major drug store outlets across North America.

"NSBI continues to be an important partner for us as we grow within and outside Nova Scotia," said Robert Cervelli, president and CEO of Origin BioMed. "This investment will help drive our market expansion as we position Origin for the next level of growth."

The province's previous investments of $3.728 million have helped put Origin's product on high-profile store shelves across North America.
